JAMES W. HAWES EXPLAINS HIS WITH-DRAWAL.

HE DECLARES THAT HE WOULD LOSE CASTE AMONG HIS ASSOCIATES BY RUNNING FOR

CITY COURT JUDGE-HIS SUCCESSOR ON THE TICKET WILL BE A REPUBLICAN

-THE COMMITTER OF FIFTY MAY MAKE SOME REPLY TO DR. PARKHURST.

The withdrawal of the name of James W. Hawes from the fusion ticket was announced yesterday, after attempts had been made to induce Mr. Hawes to reconsider his expressed desire to withdraw. At the time Mr. Hawes was cominated as one of the candidates on the fusion ticket for the office of Judge of the City Court, he was a candidate for nomination to the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, and his name had been presented to the committees of conference for that reason. It was found impossible to nominate Mr. Hawes for the Supreme Court, and he was nominated for the City Court without his

Immediately after the fusion ticket was nominated Mr. Hawes expressed regret that his name had been used as a candidate for the City Court. He said he never had had much practice in that court, and he felt that he could not afford to take the office, even if he could be elected. As a candidate to fill an unexpired term of two years at a salary of $10,000 a year, he felt that he would lose caste among his legal associates. His desire to withdraw from the ticket was at first announced to a few, because he did not desire to embarrass members of the conference committees in the se ction of another man to run in his place. Efforts were made to induce Mr. Hawes to remain a candidate, because it was admitted that his name added great strength to the ticket. MR. HAWES'S LETTER.

The fact of his intention to withdraw having been announced yesterday, however, Mr. Hawes sent to Edward Lauterbach, chairman of the Republican County Committee, the following letter

My Dear Mr. Lauterbach: I was surprised last evening by a visit from a reporter, who stated that he had learned of my withdrawal, and had already had an interview with you. How the matter became public I do not know. I had, however, already decided to write you this morning that, after further consideration, I was unable to reconsider my previous determination. I have given much time and intellectual energy during the last twenty-five years to the service of the party, and have twice helped to fill out a ticket for them. I ought not, therefore, to be asked to make any further sacrifice. Besides, I was satisfied that I should lose caste in the profession and among my associates by accepting the nomination. The cheapening process is the one that a man can least afford. I think you will agree with me in this.

I appreciate what you have endeavored to do for me, and shall, of course, aid the ticket in any way in my power. Yours very truly.

No action was taken on the letter by the County

No action was taken on the letter by the County Committee yesterday. Mr. Lauterbach said the letter would not be acted upon hastily, and the sulted before anything was done. He believed, he said, that the vacancy on the ticket would be filled on Monday or Tuesday. He also said that Mr. Hawes had been slated for something better, but in the hurry and bustle of the conference he got the nomination for Judge of the City Court, and it was thought that he might be willing to sacrifice himself once more for the good of the ticket. Still it was too much to expect of him. It would have meant that he should sacrifice his large law practice. TO CHOOSE A MAN IN MR. HAWES'S PLACE.

At Republican headquarters yesterday it was said that the man to be selected to take the place of ex-Judge Hawes on the ticket would have to be a Republican without doubt, as there had been a definite agreement with the leaders of the State Democracy on that point, but that the man would elected after a conference with the Chamber of Commerce Committee of Fifty on Monday and ould be a man entirely acceptable to that com mittee. There was absolutely no foundation for the report which was started yesterday that an effort might be made to induce the Good Government Club men to withdraw their ticket and indorse the fusion ticket by offering to place Lewis L. Delafield on the fusion ticket in place of Mr. Hawes, the Republican leaders said. Job E. Hedges, Mayor Strong's secretary, as a possible candidate for the City Court in place of Mr. Hawes. Other Republicans who were mentioned as possible candidates are Howard Payson Wilds and Lucas L. Van Allen.

J. Harsen Rhoades, the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Committee of Fifty, said yesterday afternoon that the committee had been informed of the withdrawal of ex-Judge Hawes from the ticket.

informed of the withdrawal of ex-Judge Hawes from the ticket.

"The committee will have a meeting on Monday," Mr. Rhoades continued, "and action will be taken then to select another man in place of Mr. Hawes. We are assured that the selection will be made after an agreement between the same committees which united in the selection of same committees which united in the selection of the candidates on the fusion ticket. It is pos-sible that the Committee of Fifty may decide on Monday to make some reply to the statement of Dr. Parkhurst, which has been published. We feel that Dr. Parkhurst was not aware of all the difficulties in the way of fusion this fall, or he would not have expressed the intention to scratch some of the names on the ticket."

GOOD GOVERNMENT CLUBS' INVITATION.

Mr. Rhoades yesterday received a copy of the resolution which was passed by the Campaign Committee of the Good Government Clubs on Friday evening, inviting the Committee of Fifty to a joint debate on the resolution, "That it is the duty of patriotic citizens to support the Good Government ticket rather than the fusion ticket." Government ticket rather than the fusion ticket."
The invitation will be laid before the Committee of Fifty at its meeting to-morrow, but it is probable that the Good Government Club men will be informed that it is not the pressing duty of the Committee of Fifty to aid in giving free advertising to a movement which can only have the effect to aid Tammany in the campaign.

THE COOPER UNION MASS-MEETING. WARNER MILLER, ELIHU ROOT AND CHARLES EMORY SMITH TO BE AMONG THE SPEAKERS.

Arrangements for the big mass-meeting which will be held under the auspices of the Republican Club, at Cooper Union, on Tuesday evening are fast nearing completion. It was announced au-thoritatively yesterday that ex-Senator Warner Miller has accepted an invitation to speak at the meeting. Elihu Root will preside, and Charles Emory Smith, Editor of The Philadelphia Press," and ex-Minister to Russia, will be one of the speakers. While this will be the first general rully of the campaign, it is sure to be one of the biggest of the campaign, it is safe to be die of the base and most interesting.

Several other Republicans prominent in State and local politics will be added to the list of speakers, and the attendance at the meeting, from present indications, will only be limited by the capacity of the big auditorium.

REGISTRATION THROUGHOUT THE STATE Saratoga, N. Y., Oct. 12. - The registration through out Saratoga County to-day was below the average owing undoubtedly to the inclement weather and the personal registration law. Judging from the re-turns of the twenty towns so far received the registration will be about 8,200.

Little Falls, Oct. 12.-The registration for both days in this city is 1,250. This is less than one-half of the usual number. The party leaders are unable to account for the falling off. Monticello, Oct. 12.—The registration of voters has been unusually large in most of the districts of this (Sullyan) county.

Corning, Oct. 12.-The first two days of registra tion in this city show a light registry. Last year in the first two days there were 1,349 persons reg-istered, while this year but 1,004 registered. Malone, N. Y., Oct. 12.-In Malone to-day the heavy registration of last year was more than nearly registration of any year was more than maintained. The six election districts having poli-ing places in Maione village show an increase of about fifty over last year, and the increase in the county will probably be more than proportionate. Owego, Oct. 12.—Owego is the only town in Tioga County that has personal registration. Every di trict in the county has half as many registered to-night as was the total registration last year; some have two-thirds as many.

FOR THE ASSEMBLY The deal by which Jacob Kunzerman and William P. Grote piedged the State Democracy to the sup-port of Alexander S. Whereas, William F. Grote has placed in the hands of the chairman of this committee his declination of the nomination for member of Assembly by the State Democracy and the Republican organizations respectively in the XVIth Assembly District.

Resolved, That Jacob Kunzenman be and hereby is requested to file before 2 p. m. o'clock on Monday, October 14th inst., with the chairman of this committee similar declinations of his nomination for member of Assembly from the XIVth Assembly District by the State Democracy and the Republican organizations respectively in said district.

Resolved, That this committee hereby renounces and disavows the nomination by the State Democracy Convention of Alexander S. Williams, a Republican, as candidate for Senator in the XIIth Senata in the Strict, and advises all Democrats to vote against him.

Resolved, That the said Alexander S. Williams be and he hereby is requested to decline in due legal form the said nomination.

Resolved, That when this committee adjourns that it adjourn to Monday afternoon. October 14, at 4:30 p. m., and that all further action relative to the nominations in the XIIth Senate and XIVth Assembly districts be deferred until that time.

Mr. Green said, after the meeting, that unless Kunzenman withdrew by to-morrow he would be expelled. Members of the State Democracy, who were indignant over the action of the two would-be Assemblymen, are pleased with the action taken by the Executive Committee.

The opposition to Kunzenman, the State Democracy candidate, who was indorsed for Assembly at the Republican convention of the new XIVth District on Thursday night last, took practical shape last night when the Wide-Awake Republican Club, at a meeting held last night at No. 23 East Tenthste, nominated Charles H. A larkely attended meeting of the Brooklyn Young Republican Club was hed last night, at which the nominations of Mr. Wurster and other candidates were ratified.

"Uncle Pan" Bradley, Shepard Democratic candidates or Senator in the IIId District, yesterday announced his intention of staying in the race. The news sent a chill over the regulars in Mr. Bradley's district. They had been saying that Frank J. Gallagher, the regulars candidate, was such an unobjectionable young man that "Uncle Dan" would promptly leave the field. "Uncle Dan" would promptly leave the field. "Uncle Dan" will do nothing of the sort. This largely improves the prospects of Franklin Woodruff, the Republican candidate, who is going to make a vigorous fight to overturn the heavy normal Democratic majority in the district.

The ring candidate for Mayor, Mr. Gront, will make his first campaign speech to-morrow night.

The Shepard Democrats have started their campaign with a vigor that disheartens the friends of Mr. McLaughlin. Their headquarters at No. 251 Fulton-st, are to be open day and night, and meetings will be held every evening. John H. Durack will have charge of the Eastern District headquarters, to be opened this week. The first reform gun will be fired at the Criterion Theatre on Wednesday, night.

ASKING OPINIONS ON CONSOLIDATION The following letter has been sent to every candi date for office in Brooklyn by the League of Loyal Citizens:

Brooklyn, October 10, 1895.

Dear Sir: The League of Loyal Citizens of Brooklyn earnestly opposes consolidation, but recognizes that there are honest differences of opinion on that subject among men of all political faith. Fairminded citizens must regret that the vote taken in November, 1894, was so small and so close as to be indecisive. Desiring to clear the political situation from obstruction, and to take ground on which moderate men, whether favoring consolidation or not, may meet, the League urges the resubmission of the nain question, for or against consolidation, as before, to the voters of our city at the earliest convenient time that the subject may be fully discussed and settled apart from other issues. This League piedges itself to accept the result of such resubmission. Do you approve this, and will you support it if elected? And do you disapprove other legislative action on consolidation until after resubmission? Please answer clearly and fully. By an agreement on the question of resubmission the question of consolidation may be removed from present political discussion, and he so placed before our voters as to be dealt with on its merits, apart from partisan controversy.

night and got a room on the eighth floor. Shortly after going there he sent out for three novels. He was not again seen alive. At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, as he had not left his room, Dr. Fleming, the hotel physician, and the hotel detective, Mr. Mullen, went up to the room. The detective looked over the transom and saw Vail lying dead on the floor, dressed only in his night clothes. Entrance was gained to the room and an examination made. An empty box, which had contained twenty grains of morphine, was found on a table. na well as a glass, which held the dregs of a white fuld. There was a loaded revolver on the mantel-

Then Grief said that he saw Vail riding in a cab at Eighth-ave and Thirtleth-st. Friday night, and induced him to go home with him. "We had a row, and I clubbed him." Vail got anary and frew a revoiver on him. Grief said he boxed the young man's ears and hurried him out of the house. Before eaving the place, Vail remarked, "I know I have been a scoundrel all my life." He must have gone directly to the hotel from Grief's house, and it is supposed that he planned suicide in a fit of remorse.

THE DEATH OF MAJOR O. F. R. WAITE.

Claremont, N. H., Oct. 12.-Major O. F. R. Walte died last night from Bright's disease. He was born in Chester, Vt., in 1818, learned the printer's trade who has an office at No. 1.440 Broadway. The pearlinas been sent to Tiffany's to be mounted. Mrs. Bedell is the wife of an architect, and is active in social circles.

The facts of the case were only made public yesterday. To a Tribune reporter who called at the home of Mrs. Bedell last night, she said she was troubled with a sharp pain in a back tooth while at Ear Harbor last summer. The tooth began to worry her several days after she had caten some oysters. At the time she believed the cause of her sufferings was due to the cavity in the tooth. During her stay at Bar Harbor she suffered much pain. Every time the tooth annuyed her she felt as if something was pressing on the nerves of the tooth. She could not find anything ledged in the cavity, however. Returning to this city, she visited Dr. Leeds, who discovered a globular growth in the cavity, however.
